Angela Carter was in over the horse Marissas Marshmellow owned by Saswan Speed Horses. The horse had been allowed to start based on information that the ownership licenses had been sent to head office. It appears now that the application had been returned because it was not filled out properly. Ms. Carter said she made several calls to Jessica Harvey to inquire about the status of the ownership application which were unreturned. The horse dropped its rider at the break and no monies were earned. Ms. Carter was advised to make sure that the paperwork for each of horses is in order and no further action taken.
