CRAFT BREWERY DAY A HUGE SUCCESS AT AJAX DOWNS

AJAX DOWNS, JULY 23rd 2017 -Ajax Downs' annual Craft Brewery Day at the Races was another huge success with a jam-packed grandstand and patio and 3 important Trial races for the upcoming Ontario Sires Stakes Futurity, worth $60,000.

Craft breweries from around the Durham Region had long line ups throughout the afternoon to sample its products and line-ups for the expanded number of betting windows were also long.

The crowd cheered loudly for the Trial races, which featured mostly first-time starting 2-year-olds who handled the crowds well.

Long time Ajax Downs horse owners Picov Cattle Company won one of the Trials with Hanover Hill Sugar, trained by top Quarter Horse trainer Joe Tavares and ridden by Chelsey Willick. Tavares and Willick combined to win the second Trial as well with the ultra impressive filly Junoimzoomin, woened by Christina Tavbares.

The other Trial winner was Eleanorr, owned and trained by Scott Reid of Bowmanville and ridden by Cassandra Jeschke of Cobourg.

The trial final is sure to be a thriller and it will be held on Sunday Aug. 13.
